READ THE JOURNAL 10c A WEEK.

REV. J. P. HILLERBY

Rev. J. P. Hillerby is in the city for a short time visiting his daughter, Mrs. Charles Hopper. He is now pastor of a church at Blue Point, N. Y., fifty miles from New York city, and is traveling toward the world's fair. Blue Point is a summer resort on the Atlantic beach, five miles from the village, and the bay that comes up from the village is made up of the ocean. He says when counting up the young men who are in the ministry in the east, he finds Ed Nash in New Jersey; Julian Wadsworth, in Brooklyn; Mass.; Thomas Smith, in New York city; Willard Palmer, in New England, and all of them received more or less education in Illinois colleges. Among those well-known here are Charles Crane, Frank Crane, M. Appleby, and Louis Olenslager, all of whom are popular workers in the east.

WHY THEY LEAVE

"Why Girls Leave Home," which is said to have many features that other productions of melodrama have not, notably, not a revolver from one end of the book to the other, will be presented at the Grand Monday night. Mr. Summerfield, the author is said to be congratulated in going beyond the beaten paths and fashioning a melodrama that was one of the few successes of last season. The drama points a moral which could be drawn in numerous instances of modern life. It is a story of evil associates and a longing for gay life, yet it has a heroine with innocent intentions. Harshness between brother and sister at home gives the girl excuse for continuing on the seemingly wayward career she has chosen, and many exciting bits of experience make the path extremely fascinating.

TO PLAY PITTSFIELD

The Jacksonville Business college football team will leave this morning for Pittsfield, where they will play this afternoon. The team is in a better condition than it has been on account of several new men in the college who have had foot ball experience. A great deal is looked for from the J. B. C. team in this afternoon's game.

BUSINESS MEETING

The ladies of Centenary church are requested to meet in the southwest room this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Important business and a full attendance is desired.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds and prevents pneumonia; take no substitutes. Sold by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

GRACE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Grace church Sunday school has elected officers who will assume their duties in the school to-morrow. The list is as follows: Superintendent—J. W. Brecken. Assistant superintendent—Mrs. R. S. Nelson. Secretary—J. Fred Williams. Assistant secretary—Miss Edna Stout. Treasurer—Roy Funk. Assistant treasurer—Watson Spencer. Librarian—Miss Mary Wood. Organist—Miss Jessie Wharton. Chorister—Miss Helen Shuff. Mr. Brecken comes into this very responsible position with many years of experience in Sunday school work and a strong faith in the mission of the Sunday school. He will be cordially welcomed by the entire school.

Prof. T. R. Hopkins, after three years of faithful service, is the retiring superintendent. He is president of the Morgan county Sunday school association and will devote himself largely to that work.

BETTER THAN PILLS

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are gentler and more pleasant to take, and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by all leading druggists.

General Apathy is still in charge of the Democratic campaign.

Is Judge Parker attempting to win votes by the use of absent treatment?

Parker concluded in his letter of acceptance to try a different bait, but the fish don't seem to bite.

Mr. Davis seems to be a little afraid that instead of getting a run for his money he will have to run and hide it.

Some of the convictions the Democratic party is dragging to light for use in this campaign smell of moth balls.

Some irreverent person, observes
with Herrick, Harrison and Hill
on their hands, the Democratic party seems to be running to H. But there is now law against that amusement.

It was injudicious to enjoin silence on Marse Henry Watterson. If he has to keep that eloquence of his corked too long there is liable to be an earthquake down in old Kentucky.

PARKER AND CORPORATIONS.

Ex-Senator Warner Miller returns
from the west with the interesting report that the name of only one presidential candidate is heard there, and that is Roosevelt. He says that the westerner is highly prosperous and that he wants his prosperity to continue so that he does not favor a change of administration. Then, entirely apart from any partisan view of the situation, the ex-senator calls attention to the fact that Judge Parker is an unknown quantity to the west. There has been no particular effort put forward to really acquaint the westerner with the candidate, as the westerner likes to know a man and make him feel that the New York judge has a personality to inspire. It seems rather to be the policy to keep him as much as possible upon a pedestal of mystery in the hope of attracting votes to him merely because he is not vigorously and specifically committed to any issues calculated definitely to antagonize.

In view of the dubious outlook for the Democratic candidate it is interesting to learn that he did not go into the contest unmindful in the flush of satisfaction at being honored with the nomination, of its possible result in defeat. He has shown himself the shrewd lawyer of the kind that made a successful state campaign chairman of the Hon. D. B. Hill in arranging that if he should be the candidate of the Belmont interests, these prosperous interests should take care of him satisfactorily in the event of his defeat. Accordingly, he has done no more than is fair in securing the pledge that he is to be the attorney for the Belmont corporation interests at a salary of $50,000 a year in the event of his defeat at the polls.

And this development is additional evidence that the Democratic candidate for president can be depended upon to be a good friend of the corporation interests which have taken
such an active interest in his canvass
in the person of August Belmont, if he should happen to be elected.

Rochester (N. Y.) Times.

Jerry Collins is reported seriously ill.

NOT USED BY DEMOCRATS

Adjectives for Which Parker's Followers
Have No Use.

"We know what we mean when we speak of an honest and stable currency," said President Roosevelt in his speech of acceptance.

In no official utterance of the Democratic party, or of its candidates for president or vice president during the last eight years, have the adjectives
"honest" or "stable" ever been used to designate the kind of currency Democracy demanded, and this notwithstanding the Democratic phrase-makers will use adjectives freely and recklessly whenever they have only "paramount" or "tantamount" idea to advance, like in the platform adopted at St. Louis, which said "the existing Republican administration has been
SPASMODIC, ERRATIC, SEXSA-TIONAL, SPECTACULAR and AN-BITRARY."

Alton B. Parker says the gold standard is "irrevocably established," but he does not say that his own personal belief in it as affording an "HONEST AND STABLE CURRENCY" has been irrevocably established, nor, furthermore, that he deemed the Democratic party wrong, when in congress in 1890, it almost to a man voted against the establishment of the gold standard.

As the gold standard of value was then "irrevocably established," not by the Democratic party, but by the Republican party, the only gold standard that the Democratic party can honestly claim to have "irrevocably established" is the gold standard of silence on a subject on which it never did talk except to lower itself in the estimation of intelligent people, and to breed apprehension in business circles.

Probably the greatest harm
done by vast wealth is the harm
that we of moderate means do ourselves when we let the voices of envy and hatred enter deep into our own natures.—From Roosevelt's speech at Providence, R.
I., Aug. 23, 1902.

REPUBLICAN vs. DEMOCRATIC POLICY.

Organization does much to maintain the wages of labor, but organization
of wage-earners does not provide consumers. Consumption of coal is always greatest when mills and factories are running full time. It is the policy of the Republican party to protect all industries by wise and beneficial laws, while it has been the policy of the Democratic party, as evidenced by the last Cleveland administration, to provide as much work as possible for the artisans of other countries by removing the protection the tariff affords American workmen.

Parker's Political Conference.

It is announced, with a flourish of trumpets, that Richard Olney, who was in President Cleveland's cabinet,
has visited Judge Parker, spending
two hours with him at Rosemont.
Nothing is said about the visits of
"Blue-Eyed" Billy Sheehan of Tannany fame, who is a near neighbor of Judge Parker, and who can run in any time. It would take many pounds of Olneyism to cure one ounce of Sheehanism.

The Policy of Silence.

A German proverb says "speech is silver, silence is gold." The Democratic party evidently has come out for gold if that means silence on the money question, and it certainly has gone back on silver, if that means any speech positively committing it to friendliness to any sane system of finance.

Democrats Believe Roosevelt.

During the last session of congress
a Democratic senator arose in his place
and said: "When the president affirms that this government had no part in the revolt in Panama, that settles it,
so far as he is concerned, I believe him."

He Hasn't Loned.

The American secretary of state has accomplished about all that has been attained by the great diplomats of the world within the last four or five years. In other words, John Hay hasn't done any "lonin'" round the Throne.

Under the Republican policy of protection our home market affords our manufacturers and producers the best market in the world, even if we did not sell any of our products abroad.
But protection has also made us the greatest exporting nation in the world.

China and India are "cheap" countries. Human labor is held very low in these lands and the result is that the masses are constantly steeped in poverty and menaced by starvation. In spite of the so-called cheapness the people do not get things.

The Democratic editors will have fun
with themselves when they begin making extravagance of the national expenditures and the Jeffersonian purimony that has plastered New York
over with a debt of more than $310, 000,000.

The question is now being discussed
as to whether a shadow can occupy space. The answer must be in the affirmative to those who believe there is a money plank in the St. Louis platform.

Confidence in the continuance of the present administration at Washington for another four years is reflected in the confident tone that pervades all business circles in the United States.

Odds in Wall street of 2 to 1 on Roosevelt deliver no electoral votes,
but they are mighty discouraging to the silent speculator of Esopus.

REPUBLICAN RALLY

Assistant Attorney General of
U. S. to Be Here.

Among the noted speakers to be here at the big Republican rally on Oct. 22, will be Judge J. G. Thompson, assistant attorney general of the United States. He is a brilliant orator and one of the prominent speakers in the long list sent out by the national committee.

FORGOTTEN COMBINE.

For some time there has been a persistent rumor in circulation that the western manufacturers of farm implements
were about to form a mammoth trust and put up the price of farm implements to the farmer, but inquiry has failed to throw any light on such a combination.
Several efforts at the formation of a combination in the past have failed because they have failed of their own weight.
As one of the gentlemen said: "It is too big a proposition and takes too many millions to move it." Some of the men who are interested say that an agreement between the big concerns that would do away with ruinous competition would probably result to the benefit of the consumers as well as the stockholders. The combination in this line is so keen and is conducted along lines that make it so expensive that any arrangement that would reduce this expense would be an advantage to all parties concerned, they say.

The loss of manufacturers in distribution of their product through the incompetency of agents and the evils of unchecked competition are said to be enormous and it is this loss that is sought to be checked by combination. But whether this would stop short at this point is what the public wants to know. The consumer wants to know whether or not he is to get something out of the deal.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT

Pickpocket Comes to Grief on East Side of Square Friday Afternoon.

Considerable excitement was created Friday afternoon about 2 o'clock by the chase of a pickpocket from the east side of the square to Thornborough & Willerton's barn on South East street, where he was caught and taken to the city bastille. The man gave his name as Fred Graham, and he hails from Jersey county, where he works on a farm. The victim was Philip Payer, of Waverly.

Payer was standing in the crowd in front of the wild animal show, with his pocketbook in his hand, preparing to buy a ticket, when Graham reached over his shoulder, seized the pocketbook and ran, pursued by the crowd. He turned into East Morgan street, ran down the first alley and turned in the next toward East street, where he was overhauled by Special Policeman W. T. Hamilton and Policeman Bruner. He had dropped the pocketbook in his flight and the money was scattered along the way.

Graham was given a hearing before Squire Reid Friday afternoon and was put under bonds of $100 to appear before the November term of the circuit court. In default of bond he went to jail. Graham is said to have a bad reputation in the vicinity in which he lives and has done a number of jobs before.

CARNIVAL QUEEN.

A photograph was taken of the queen of the carnival Friday afternoon. The carriage was drawn up east of the Christian church on East State street and was drawn by four white horses, with beautifully decorated harness. The queen, Miss Mamie Nunes, was surrounded by her maids of honor, Misses Edith Vasconcelas, Mae Hickman and Maggie Coffman. The party were all sitting in the carriage, which was surrounded in front by the twelve little flower girls. The photographers were E. A. McCullough and Chick Davis, who is also the official decorator and photographer for the Eagles' carnival.

SEATS ON SALE TO DAY.

Critics say that one of the enjoyable features about "Buster Brown" Melville B. Raymond's new musical comedy creation, which comes to the opera house Tuesday, Oct. 18, is that it is one of the few musical comedies which can be enjoyed no matter how often you see it, as the music is new and bright, the blending of the colors of the costumes so pleasing to the eye that one does not tire even with all its gorgeousness. "Buster's" many pranks appeal to you with such a goodly sense of humor that new traits are discovered in him each night. Tige comes in for a share of the fun.

AT THE GRAND.

The James Kennedy company put on "Sheridan Keene, Detective," at the grand last night in a creditable manner before a fair audience. The play is very familiar to Jacksonville audiences and the presentation last evening was up to the standard of former presentations.

The specialties were loudly applauded, as were the illustrated songs. A number of moving pictures were shown, some of which were unusually fine, and all were good.

The company will appear to day, matinee and evening.

BRYAN HITS AT HOPKINS CROWD

Excoriates Ringsters in Charge of Democratic Machine in Illinois.

CALLS THEM TRAIN ROBBER

Sees Death of Party Hopes in Action at the State Convention.

Praises Candidates Who Withdrew Their Names Because of the Influence of the Proceedings.

While the Democratic party of this state continues under the rule of the men who made it notorious at the recent Democratic state convention it cannot consistently ask self-respecting men for their support. As most readers will recall, the convention was dominated by a ring whose will was law, wholly irrespective of the rights of the majority of its members.

In defiance of the will of the delegates, a chairman was imposed upon the convention by the ring in order that the proceedings might be manipulated in the interests of the ring. Delegates were seated or unseated wholly without reference to their rights, or the rights of the constituencies which sent them there. It was unconscionable gag rule, pure and simple, by men who aimed to accomplish individual and selfish ends irrespective of right or of the interests of their party.

People's Rights Trampled On.

That we may not be charged with doing injustice to the crew who ran things at that convention, and who aim to get control of this state in order that they may run it for their own selfish ends, we publish a few extracts from the speech of William J. Bryan at the St. Louis convention, in which he truthfully but scathingly exposed the character of those men and the guilty methods by which they aim to gain power. In support of the minority report of the committee on credentials, to which the Illinois contest had been referred, Mr. Bryan said:

"In the state of Illinois the majority was not allowed to rule. That convention was dominated by a clique of men who deliberately, purposely, boldly trampled upon the rights of the people of Illinois.

"My friends, the evidence shows that no band of train robbers ever planned a robbery upon a train more deliberately or with less conscience than they did. And these men, who planned it and who carried it out, have the audacity, the impudence, and the insolence to say that because they certify that what they did was regular you cannot go behind their certificate.

Call's Contests Train Robbers.

"If that is good law for a Democratic convention it ought to be good doctrine in court, and if it is good doctrine in court, then the only thing train robbers have to do in the future is to make a report of their transactions over their own signatures. After they have committed their crime all that train robbers will have to do is to certify over their own signatures that it was a voluntary collection taken up for religious purposes, and deny you the right to go behind the returns.

"In spite of the fact that that convention was not allowed to act upon its own credentials, was not allowed to decide the merits of its own delegates, yet, with all they sealed, they did not seat enough, for more than half of the men actually seated by the Hopkins committee have signed petitions asking that they be sent back home, and that Democrats who represent the people of that state be substituted for them in this convention.

"If they had a majority of the convention, why did they not permit a roll call? Why would they deny it if they had the votes there? Men do not go wrong as a rule unless they think it is necessary to carry out some object, and the only way that you can decide that these men did wrong, was necessarily to decide that they were so perverted in conscience that they did wrong from choice rather than from necessity. Their whole conduct shows that their purpose was conceived in sin, born in iniquity, and carried out to the destruction of Democratic hopes in that state.

"War at Convention."

"Give the Democrats of Illinois something to hope for. Do not tell them that when they go to a Democratic convention they must go armed as to war, prepared to fight their way up to the chairman of the convention.

"What could they do? They could either resort to force and risk the killing that would result, or you say, they could bolt. Yes, three-fourths of the convention could have gotten up and walked out and left one-fourth in charge as the regular convention. They hoped for a roll call. They knew that whenever they could get a roll call they could assert their rights. They only had this one roll call, and when the convention was over these men had to submit to the disfranchisement of the Democratic majority of Illinois, and so this petition was signed, and these men, 871, ask this convention to seat the men who have the right to seats from the districts as shown by a majority of the votes.

Notorious Gag Rule.

"That convention was so openly, so notoriously a gag rule and gag run

ILLINOIS REPUBLICAN STATE CANDIDATES

LAWRENCE Y. SHERMAN
LEN SMALL
WILLIAM H. STEAD
JAMES A. ROSE
JAMES S. McCULLOUGH
CHARLES S. DENEEN
CHARLES W. DAVIDSON
MARY BUSEY
WILLIAM L. ABBOTT

become an issue in the present campaign.

Coming to Illinois when one year old, Judge Sherman has spent the remaining forty-five years of his life in the state. He is a senior member of the law firm of Sherman, Tunt-cliff & Gambart, of Macomb, where, years ago, he took a job as teamster at $1 a day, in order to get money with which to open a law office.

JAMES A. ROSE.

No better evidence could be given of the appreciation and esteem in which James A. Rose is held than the fact that the Republicans of the state insisted on naming him a third time as a candidate for secretary of state. This means that Mr. Rose is believed by those who know him, to be honest, that he is believed to be efficient and capable, and that his administration of the affairs of his office has been characterized by that courtesy and fairness which elicits affection as well as commendation.

Mr. Rose is of native of this state, of Scotch extraction, born in Pope county in 1850. Beginning as a teacher, he so won his way into public confidence that at the early age of 23 years he was elected county superintendent of schools. Studying law, he was elected to the office of state attorney, immediately after his admission to the bar. These facts show that the young man had ability, and that he had also that high character which commands respect. Elected state attorney a second time, he was pressed with a third nomination for that office. When they get him in office the people want to keep him there.

As trustee of the Pontiac reformatory and later as commissioner of the Chester penitentiary, he devoted time and energy to the betterment of those important institutions. Elected in 1896 to be secretary of state, he was re-elected in 1900 and will again be re-elected in 1904.

LEN SMALL.

Len Small, the Republican nominee for state treasurer, is admirably fitted by character and training to perform the duties pertaining to that office. He was nominated for state auditor. His plurality in the election of that fall was 338,000 votes, the largest of any candidate on the ticket. Both succeeding nominations have come to him without opposition.

WILLIAM H. STEAD.

"Really brilliant, as well as a logical speaker. All the graces and charms of speech are his, and he knows how to use them to good purpose." Such is the characterization of William H. Stead, as made by a prominent writer in referring to the orators of the campaign. It is a tribute well deserved. As a public speaker he is in frequent demand, and those who have heard him at the bar, on the lecture platform or in the political forum unite in the opinion of his ability as an orator.

Mr. Stead was born in LaSalle county, this state, in 1858. Like so many men who have become famous, he spent his early years on a farm. Like so many men who have become famous, his schooling began in a little country district school. By teaching school he obtained the means for a coveted college education, and attended the normal college at Ladoga, Ind., and DePaul university, at Greencastle. Selecting the profession of law, he devoted to it the patience, industry, energy and enthusiasm which insure success. His experience now covers twenty years of a varied practice, and in recent years he has been connected with most of the important cases in the courts of northern Illinois.

JAMES S. McCULLOUGH.

In the eight years of his service as auditor of public accounts, Hon. James S. McCullough has brought the workings of his office to a degree of excellence probably never before attained in any department of the state government. Mr. McCullough's policy to employ none but expert accountants and experienced office men in his work has proved so successful that in the recent Republican state convention his re-nomination was made by acclamation, no other name being presented for the honor.

Mr. McCullough has a war record that endears him to every patriot in the state of Illinois. In 1892, at the age of 19 years, he enlisted as a private in Company G, Seventy-sixth Illinois Volunteer Infantry. In the assault on Fort Blakeley, near Mobile, April 9, 1895—one of the last desperate struggles of the war—he was one of the eighty-one wounded, which, with seventeen killed, composed the casualties of the Seventy-sixth Illinois in that bloody charge. A grape shot had torn away his left arm close to the shoulder, but the wound was not sufficient to suppress this gallant boy's cheers when the news was conveyed to him that the colors of his regiment were the first to be planted on the ramparts of that fort, which for four crimson years had successfully resisted every assault.

At the close of the war Mr. McCullough returned to Indiana, Ill., which place had been his home since he was brought to Illinois from Pennsylvania by his father, at the age of 11 years. He spent three years in school, and in 1898 entered the office of the Champaign county clerk. As deputy, in this capacity he served until 1873, when he was elected to fill the office himself. He was re-elected for each succeeding term, until 1898, when he was nominated for state auditor. His plurality in the election of that fall was 338,000 votes, the largest of any candidate on the ticket. Both succeeding nominations have come to him without opposition.

WILLIAM L. ABBOTT.

William L. Abbott is a graduate of the University of Illinois, of which institution he is a nominee for trustee. He was born on a farm near the town of Morrison, Whiteside county, Ill., and lived in the same neighborhood until his graduation, in 1884, when he located in Chicago. Mr. Abbott worked as a machinist and draughtsman until 1885, when he engaged in the electric light business in Chicago. He was successful in the enterprise, which he conducted with profit until 1894, when his business interests were purchased by the Chicago Edison company. Since that time Mr. Abbott has been in the employ of this company as chief operating engineer.

DR. CHARLES W. DAVISON.
Dr. Charles W. Davison, candidate for trustee of the University of Illinois, stands in the front rank in his profession in the city of Chicago. He is an energetic and successful surgeon, occupying many responsible positions, among which are attending surgeon to the Cook county hospital, the Samaritan hospital and the West Side hospital of Chicago.

MRS. MARY E. BUSEY.

Mrs. Mary E. Busey, the woman Republican nominee for trustee of the University of Illinois, has long been actively and prominently identified with school work in this state, and especially with the work at the State university. She has been for a number of years a member of the Urbana school board, having served as chairman of the committee on building and grounds and the committee on teachers. To Mrs. Busey more than any other one person, probably, is due credit for the addition of domestic science to the course of study at the State university.

WILLIAM L. ABBOTT.
Mr. Abbott worked as a machinist and draughtsman until 1885, when he engaged in the electric light business in Chicago. He was successful in the enterprise, which he conducted with profit until 1894, when his business interests were purchased by the Chicago Edison company. Since that time Mr. Abbott has been in the employ of this company as chief operating engineer.

The Effective Remedy

WASHINGTON, IOWA, April 4, 1903.

I was troubled for over a year with an scanty a flow that it was virtually suppressed. A heavy cold superinduced this condition and nothing I could do seemed to help me. The only effective remedy I ever found was Wine of Cardui. Within two weeks I felt the good effects of the medicine and after I had used 12 bottles in all I was as healthy and regular as any woman could wish to be. My sister used it with like effect to become pregnant. My mother and I found that it helped her to regain her strength.

WON EASY GAME

Illinois College Defeated Lincoln Friday by Score of 23 to 0

Illinois defeated the Lincoln college on Illinois field Friday afternoon by a score of 23 to 0, before a fair sized crowd. The Lincoln men were outplayed at every turn and only twice did they make first down. They were in poor condition and showed lack of practice. Illinois has improved wonderfully since their game at St. Louis last Saturday, under the efficient coaching of Percy Owen. Next Saturday they play Christian Brothers' college, of St. Louis, here and it will take faithful practice during the coming week in order to win. The score yesterday could easily have been larger, as at the end of the first and second halves Illinois had the ball within three yards of the goal when time was called.

The feature of the game was an 85-yard run-around left end by Orenor for Illinois. Cowdin was always equal to a first down. McDonald, besides playing a good defensive game, was in every offensive play and was very effective in pulling the runners through the line. W. T. Harmon, at half, made several brilliant plays.

THE GAME.

Illinois kicked off to Lincoln, who lost the ball immediately on downs, and it was Illinois' ball on the 30-yard line. In return Lincoln held and the ball went over, but the visitors were downed several times for a loss and Illinois took the ball on the 8-yard line. McDonald placed the oval within one foot of the goal, and on the next play carried it over for a touchdown. Brown failed goal; score 5 to 0.

Illinois kicked off again and obtained the ball on downs at the 40-yard line. Harmon placed it on the 3-yard line. McDonald fumbled and it was Lincoln's ball on the 5-yard line. An attempted kick was blocked by Cowdin, who fell on the ball behind the line, scoring a touchdown. Brown kicked goal and the score stood 11 to 0. Illinois kicked off to Lincoln, who lost ten yards on the first play. They failed in the distance and after the ball went over Cowdin placed the pigskin within one yard of the goal when time was called.

SECOND HALF.

Lincoln kicked to Cowdin and on the next play Orenor, in a brilliant spurt, broke loose and ran eighty-five yards for a touchdown. Brown kicked goal; score, 17 to 0.

Brown kicked off for Illinois over Lincoln's goal line, but it was advanced ten yards. McKimsey broke through and tackled the runner for a 5-yard loss. The ball went over and Cowdin scored a touchdown. Brown kicked goal; score, 23 to 0.

Lincoln kicked off and Williams, Orenor, Harmon, McDonald and Cowdin sent the ball steadily down the field to the 30-yard line, where a place kick was attempted and failed. The ball was kicked out and Lincoln got it on a fumble. Wylder tackled the runner for a 10-yard loss. The visitors were forced to punt and Illinois advanced the ball to the 1-yard line, where time was called. The lineup:

Summary: Referee—Vickery. Umpire—T. Butler. Lineman—Stubblefield. Touchdowns—McDonald 1. Cowdin 2. Orenor. Goals—Brown 3. Halves—Fifteen and twenty minutes. Score—23 to 0.

IN HONOR OF MRS. BRADLEY. Mrs. T. P. Carter was the hostess Friday afternoon at a delightful luncheon, given by the ladies of Synosis in honor of Mrs. John E. Bradley, of Boston. The function was an enjoyable one for all who were present.

THE EAGLES' FESTIVAL

Friday Was Another Successful Day of the Gala Week—Mundy Shows Are Popular.

PROGRAM OF FREE ATTRACTIONS TO DAY.

2 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.: High dive, Southwest corner of Park.
2:35 and 7:15 p. m.: Kilpatrick's Ride for Life, corner East Street and East State street.
4:30 and 10:30 p. m.: Loop the Loop, South Side of Park.
5:00 and 10:45 p. m.: Loop the Gap, corner West Street and West State Street.

The fifth day of the great carnival passed off in fine shape, with everything on schedule time. The attendance, while by no means as large as on Thursday, was good, and the crowds thronged the shows throughout the day and evening. The free attractions are as popular as they were the first day and drew large crowds at each repetition. The daring acts continue to thrill and startle the spectators, and each act is greeted with great applause. The steeplechase, the ocean wave and the ferris wheel were busy late into the night and did a good business. In the evening the weather was rather cool for such amusement, but the crowds continued their patronage till a late hour.

The animal show was as usual the great drawing card, with Port Arthur, Lotta and Creation all close seconds in popularity.

During the evening the good natured crowds thronged the square, pelting each other with confetti and other harmless missiles, and employing the various noise making devices which are dear to the heart of an amusement-seeking crowd. All was good nature with the fun makers, and no serious conflicts were reported.

The Eagles' court was again in operation and many were the victims who were brought before the bar of justice and assessed the usual amounts, which were in most cases paid with despatch.

No serious accidents occurred to mar the pleasures of the day, and everything combined to make it one of the best of the gala week. The Eagles' committee was always on hand to keep things in motion, and the management of the Mundy shows exhibited their usual ability to have "something doing" all the time. There was not a dull moment from the time that the first show opened in the afternoon until the last stand closed at about 12:30 at night.

To day has been designated as "Farmers' Day," and it is expected that thousands will come from the surrounding country and neighboring towns to participate in the grand wind up of the greatest carnival the city has ever had.

Saturday night will occur the great confetti battle and doubtless all will be well prepared with the vari-colored bits of paper.

LIGHT FINGERED

GENTRY ABROAD

Many Pockets Were Picked in Crowd That Gathered on Streets Thursday Evening.

The light fingered gentry who have infested the city during carnival week, worked overtime Thursday evening, at least it seemed so from the number of empty pocketbooks, purses, etc., that were brought to the Journal office Friday.

Riley Smith, janitor of the Centenary church, found four pocketbooks lying between the church and the parsonage early Friday morning and brought them to the Journal office for identification. The contents had all been removed in each case, and the valueless articles in each had been stuffed into one purse and then the four were evidently thrown carelessly away by the thieves, who doubtless met and divided the spoils.

Two of the purses were claimed by owners during the day. One belonged to R. O. Post, Jr., and had contained several dollars in money. Another was the property of H. B. Samuel, of Central hospital and also had contained a number of dollars and one or two bills. Several receipts which were among the papers in one of the books led to the discovery of the pocketbook of Mr. Samuel, who recalls being jostled in the crowd Thursday evening by two gentry who feigned drunkenness, but whom he now believes had method in their madness.

The three pocketbooks remaining at the Journal office are partially described as follows. Handsome black leather, man's purse, with bill pocket. Lady's light brown handbag, with short chain, containing a handkerchief. Seal brown lady's purse, with five pockets, broken clasp. Small light brown purse containing small sum of money, was left at this office Friday afternoon, same having been found. Owner can have same by proving property.

R. H. Donaldson reported the loss of a purse containing $2.75, and other calls for lost property were made during the day. It was evidently a slick bunch of pickpockets that operated among the crowds that were on the streets Thursday, and it will pay people to be on their guard.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB

"Harmony" Session at the Court House Tuesday Evening.

The Jacksonville Democratic Marching club held a harmonious meeting at the court house Friday evening, with twenty-two persons in attendance, eleven of whom were office holders in either the city or county. Judge O. P. Thompson and Judge Charles A. Barnes were advertised as the speakers of the evening, but it developed to the uninitiated that the object of the meeting was not speech making, but the ratification of the twelve district directors for the Jacksonville districts.

R. C. Reynolds, president of the club, called the meeting to order and in the absence of the secretary, Henry English, Robert Montgomery was elected secretary pro tem.

The selection of the twelve directors was placed in the hands of the president of the club and the three vice presidents at the last meeting. After the reading and approval of the minutes of the previous meeting the president announced that as Mr. Baldwin, the first vice president of the club, was out of the city, and as he had been unable to see the second and third vice presidents, he had called in the chairman of the county central committee to aid in the selection of the directors. The president then reported that the following had been chosen and read the list of names.

The directors are: District No. 1, Stansfield Baldwin; No. 2, John Owen; No. 3, Eugene Kettering; No. 4, Dr. George Dinsmore; No. 5, Frank English; No. 6, John Clary; No. 7, C. O. Phelps; No. 8, Felix Farrell; No. 9, Roy Craig; No. 10, Fred Habel; No. 11, John Oliver; No. 12, Ed Arnold.

The report of the president met with the approval of the audience and was adopted unanimously.

Daniel Babin then moved that the meeting adjourn until next Tuesday night, when Candidates Lawrence W. Stringer and Thomas Ferns would be present to address the Democrats of the county at a place to be decided upon later. Carried.

It developed that the cause of the delay in starting the meeting was the star chamber conference held in the county treasurer's office, between the "Big Five," who assisted and kindly advised President Reynolds in the naming of the directors.

The crowd took the delay kindly and good naturedly and the dietum of the machine again triumphed.
